

SCHOOL DIRECT

Want to teach?

The Preston Teaching School Alliance School Direct training programme provides graduates with a direct route into teaching. The Preston Alliance, working in partnership with the University of Cumbria, consists of a variety of primary, secondary and special schools with a proven track record of providing outstanding teacher training. You will be trained by outstanding teachers within the alliance and receive specialist input from University of Cumbria staff leading to the award of Postgraduate Certificate of Education with QTS (Qualified Teacher Status).

Our subjects

For the 2019-20 one year course we are recruiting for the following subjects:

Primary

PGCE General Primary (5-11 years)

Secondary

PGCE Secondary Education with QTS: (11-16 years)

Art & Design	Biology	Chemistry	Computer Science
Design & Technology	Drama	English	Geography
History	Mathematics	Modern Languages
Physical Education	Physics	Religious Education

For more information

We will be delighted to help with any enquiries regarding our School Direct programme. If you have any questions please telephone Sandra Duggan (Secondary), on 01772 867210 or email at duggans@broughtonhigh.co.uk or Laura Adams (Primary), on 01772 863849 or email adamsl@broughtonhigh.co.uk

For more information regarding the PGCE General Primary with QTS (5 - 11 years) qualification and programme of study go to the University of Cumbria website link.

For more information regarding the PGCE Secondary Education qualification and programme of study go to the University of Cumbria website link.

How to apply

You can apply for School Direct from October 2018 for the training starting in September 2019.